

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

DARREN BROWN,

Plaintiff

Case No. 3:19-cv-00684-APG-WGC

ORDER

v.

BAZE,

Defendants

I. DISCUSSION

According to the Nevada Department of Corrections (“NDOC”) inmate database, Plaintiff is no longer incarcerated by the NDOC. However, Plaintiff has not filed an updated address with this Court. The Court notes that pursuant to Nevada Local Rule of Practice IA 3-1, a “pro se party must immediately file with the court written notification of any change of mailing address, email address, telephone number, or facsimile number. The notification must include proof of service on each opposing party or the party’s attorney. Failure to comply with this rule may result in the dismissal of the action, entry of default judgment, or other sanctions as deemed appropriate by the court.” Nev. Loc. R. IA 3-1. This Court grants Plaintiff thirty (30) days from the date of entry of this order to file his updated address with this Court. If Plaintiff does not update the Court with his current address within thirty (30) days from the date of entry of this order, this case will be subject to dismissal without prejudice. This information must be formally filed with the Court in addition to providing the courtroom deputy with contact information as previously ordered by the Court (ECF No. 13).

Additionally, the Court denies the application to proceed in forma pauperis for prisoners (ECF No. 5) as moot because it appears that Plaintiff is no longer incarcerated. The Court now directs Plaintiff to file an application to proceed in forma pauperis by a non-prisoner within thirty (30) days from the date of this order or pay the full filing fee of $400.
